

Looking for Luke

Asian American Pacific Islander Mental Health Awareness Month

Film Screening and Discussion

Wednesday, May 1, 2019

6 p.m.

Satellite Student Union

Looking for Luke is a short documentary that follows the parents of Luke Tang, a well-liked, passionate, and brilliant Harvard sophomore, as they attempt to understand why their son took his own life. The film is an extension of their mission to help other parents identify the signs and signals of depression, and other mental conditions through raising awareness of depression as a treatable illness and destigmatizing seeking help for mental health issues.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME

A Department within the Division of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management at California State University, Fresno. If you need special accommodations, please call the Cross Cultural and Gender Center at 559.278.4435. Fresno State is a tobacco-free, smoke-free, and vape-free campus.

SPONSORED BY:

FRESNO STATE

Asian Pacific Islander Programs and Services

Cross Cultural and Gender Center

President's Commission on Human Relations and Equity

Community Support

THE WILDFIRE EFFECT

THE FRESNO CENTER

LACE
LAOTIAN AMERICAN
COMMUNITY OF FRESNO

Additional support for the film provided by

The Clay Center for Young Healthy Minds
Strengthening families through education.

